FILM SCHEDULE

ALL MOVIES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE

Aug. 23, ARIZONA WILDCAT (1939)
Running time: 69 minutes
A mischievous young girl living in the Arizona territory during the 1870s causes trouble while trying to prove that her foster-father (Leo Carrillo) did not steal a gold shipment. Later, the step-dad, a former outlaw, re-gathers his gang to find the real culprit -- a shady sheriff. Stars Jane Withers, Leo Carrillo, and Pauline Moore.

Aug. 30 IF YOU COULD ONLY COOK (1935)
Running time: 72 minutes
Jim is just about to enter into a marriage of convenience when he meets an unemployed and homeless young woman in the park. She persuades him to pose as her husband so she can apply as the cook and butler. A case of mistaken identity and misdirected good intentions causes Jim to sort out his attraction to her versus the loveless marriage he's about to enter into. Starring Herbert Marshall, Jean Arthur, and Leo Carrillo.

Sept. 6, TWENTY MULE TEAM (1940)
Running time: 82 minutes
Pioneering borax miners in territorial Arizona form an uneasy alliance when two scoundrels plot to jump a valuable borax claim in Death Valley. They know the value of the strike could be worth millions, but they first need to find the prospectors' claim so they can record it and become rich partners. Starring Wallace Beery, Leo Carrillo, and Marjorie Rambeau.

Sept. 13, A TRIBUTE TO HUELL HOWSER
Running time: approx. 90 minutes
A fond tribute to "California's Gold" star, Huell Howser (1945-2013). Two special features will be shown, along with sharing clips, stories, and anecdotes from Huell's career. Features include, "California's Golden Parks, Leo Carrillo Ranch," and "This Is Your Life, Leo Carrillo" (Ralph Edwards Productions, 1959).

Sept. 20, HERE'S ADVENTURE, HERE'S ROMANCE . . . THE CISCO KID!
Running time: approx. 90 minutes
A celebration of Leo Carrillo and Duncan Renaldo's recent induction into the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum's Hall of Great Western Performers. Join us as we share special moments from the induction ceremony and enjoy a rare screening of the Cisco Kid matinee feature, "Satan's Cradle (1949)." Special guest, Richard Renaldo (son of actor Duncan Renaldo), will be joining us for the evening's festivities.
